Dear Sirs:

I have been advised to direct this communication to you, believing you can furnish me the information I seek, to wit:-

I desire to get information that would be useful, entertaining instructive, etc. for a beginners club. This information is to be used to make a paper to be delivered at the meeting

Sheet of the club. Information as to coinage, catalogues, dealers where coins could be bought sold or exchanged - etc. something of this nature that will arouse and hold the interest of the Club.

Thanking you in advance for information at your disposal, - I am. Sir

Yours truly

Dear Sir:

Responding to your letter, I am enclosing a list of coinsdealers and would suggest your writing to Messrs. Guttag Bros., 16 Exchange Place, New York City, who have, I think, something in the nature of the material you desire. Do you know of the publication of your own dominion, entitled, "Documents relating to the Canadian Currency, Exchange and Finance during the French Period," published in two volumes in 1926 and to be had for the extremely low sum of $3.00? I should think these might provide a great deal of interest for such a meeting as you describe.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
